Woke up to needing .35 for bus. Drank coffee on street 2 waiting for bus. Street was closed per my request and bus did not stop when I put my hand in my pocket for change. After 20, I walked to Chipipe & returned.

I did stop at Triathlon Event. I did request a good morning. I did request water and shade for 1x-ers and blancas and everyone – (policia/transito/volunteers of event (it will be 91 in full sun in a few minutes)). I did encounter main beach police and volunteer men of ages that determined leaving was best. I gave pool coupons and raises for effort collectively.

Once home, I smoked (cigs) after Lisseth left to church for 3rd time this week. The location was in the hallway again... which I chose to (sneak through the open back apartment cleaning door) see the back balcony.

(While on the balcony) I saw the Chileno kids in the street 2.5 parking lot ... (from an earlier Miss Salinas sports kid parade on Salinas Beach Ave. (in our fellowship) (only Brazil and Chile were present Colombia/Bolivia was gone or replaced by Ecuatorianas baton twirlers/bastoneras))... to discover my distaste for the security and safety of minors in our fellowship. (Why in the world are high schoolers not on street 1?... I was unhappy with some of the appearances of guardians (we have a military school on base at the penis' end. There is a man who looked familiar who was also watching the parking lot / he likes to watch in the AM red flag to me. Some birdees of research have confirmed that kids say they've attended the same grade for 1000 years. We do acknowledge)) (remember I am only chismisto from the balcony but full know of many things in our 2 mile/2 mile 1600 retiree residents cities/easy

IMPARTIAL TO MONETARY
Acceptable for Desk of AI submitted purchases/use for upload (E&O+T), priority options (of desk pile with your currency use for the staAAamps.)

The reason: Low monetary can be precedence. If the computer people struggle over and over with a Number, they may stamp the folder so notes/human eyes can clarify. It is not interesting.

Scant-ally clad sports with minors are traditionally a situation where a minor is pushed into cosmetics or supplements SMUG.

(I moved to my balcony to watch the group walk to the beach/get on the bus destination.) I did see an adult run with suitcase to hotel and thought of sex offender scenarios.

(Let's see. I have people that I've chosen not on the bus but I'll catch up by car. I have stolen underwear. I went downstairs and looked at lobby but man was gone with many condors. I did write the office of authorities as I wanted a side-by-side comparison of all children who flew to fellowship/attended our event. Which was a ton of non-participants missing. I did write a contingency email to our office of authorities about how we will deal with it/catch the bus in transit/2 weeks vacation in private Santa Elena closed setting where we'll talk about it. Today is Monday I am typing so that was 1 week 1 day ago. Everyone was accounted for as Police had been notified by Turbo King that he did want a delegated continuance of watching/feeding kids. The police did arrive on their days off which was the main I talked to for such reason. Turbo King was questioned too much but enough... continued... End result Presidential VIP daughter put herself on registry to hide in group but had no such pre-meditated plans to parade. (She wanted to see me || do nothing))

I Alerted AI && police && leaders of new vacation (for kids therapy).

I did add another raise to cover the inconvenience of their day off (they went home minutes after I spoke to them in person in Chipipe 1hr-ish before). Kids + yesterday crew disgust + PD + Judge non-jurisdiction (auto-approve corp is reason) allowed us to continue solving our situations until their workday optionally reviews our result (on Monday 18 of May)(Imagine the information that your parent/guardian accepted money to erase you. Where are you going to go?) (Rest of our opinion is that we cannot be involved with the choices of the recipients of said information upon their return in other countries/sovereign nations).

* 5/26/26 typing OTHER: It was said of Lamborghini and Altuve about the fact that we need no more money/income/currency. I did agree. 910T was put towards Artificial limb questionnaire which was puts them through some anatomy questions/videos of people doing things with each limb option/choosing the association membership for other's help/adding video opinion on myself/judges/doctors/robotics experts/etc.

Mine says. Pick the simplest option and start there. Others did not agree at all. Shown happy ppl with hook hand. Shown single women with assisted strength carrying bags of sod saying I have no man, so I need this one. If they

I pardoned everyone... (on 12-2AM turbo crew for trying to return 30 kids... when I saw him he had already spoke to the police the day before.. and was looking for the people who purchased all of them to (avert getting rid of them))... everyone except IronMan adult trade-offs / machistas / machistos / smug in my city. (I always understand that me pardoning means nothing but I did supply supply paperwork via the computer people.)

All these kids Ecuadorian instead of Bolivia No Colombians Lots of Brazil Lots of Blancas Chileanitos?? No brownees?? No fellowship smelled.

Made it home to wife. Ate patacones queso jugo for BK. Tried to move ghost ship in day time. Solved (already by previous agreement to not enter ship again) (could not go back on word but wait on process).

At 5PM after nap, we left for close beach. Water was cold. Nobody was there. I did see a mankini, puppy dog w/vest. New family, beautiful mom & baby with fatty husband. Dad bod.

Left when police not standard asked us to move chairs for seats off malecon not local (daily). We followed directions to area. I still sat in mine (instead of on bench).

Argued over dinner service time. Enjoyed my time away from computer? About movie time. (not allowed via streaming website on my computer monitor with wife.)

End.

Later explained Sunset Turbo King and Police.

chose, they still had to do it again with more anatomy.

Remember: That they have to continue to look at photos of children and other people to answer how many bones are missing after the 1 question of 4 question quiz. If they take the test enough, they may deem it a requirement to be active in their own city board/city association. Hopefully a louder voice later.

We do this with missing parts of heads and jaws too. My people version yells to have them choose to do it now (choose to override every decision and get the surgery / artificial limb for this person right now).

That is not an easy adult decision as sometimes they have to remove things to attach other things. Sometimes that removes the ability to get easier procedures. The simpler options sometimes include a detachable so you could attach another part. Without screws, it doesn't lift as much. Plus, the trial and error parts of it (the test), have completed the test for some and have continued the test for others. That is a mathematical sample of sorts.

Then we received an entire plethora of please don't do it again(s). Then the conversation appeared again. So 910T Blind and Deaf. Then, again, down syndrome. We can do it for the Clef Pallets. Then I did it again.

I am serious about my pplz. That 1.5 year old divorce get rid of my kids by $164 take a taxi and leave them... cross-eyed little princess... we are going to follow the situation.

That little princess eating a mango piece on a motorcycle was about 2 years old with a Clef Pallet... we are going to follow the situation. It is all I think about.
