5-29-2026 Friday Notes of Ed Sparks

-1 page

Wake up at 4:15am. Drank tea water with cigarettes on balcony. Observed 1st winter rain for a sprinkle most of a minute. I moved chairs and napped for another minute. I did want to know. Is it an addiction?

I made coffee about daybreak. I did see man of the 1 floor clean his car around early. I did expect princess arrangements before my day.

Princess Travel Expectations

Princesses travel for their own entertainment.

To begin we do like to see the practice of the yellow flag song. We do not want a VIRAL yellow flag song. A good replacement is the practice song being read in 4 words with the captains/cuties.

Practice Practice Practice Practice
practice practice practice practice
Practice Practice Practice Practice
practice practice practice practice

If you are needing another round of practice song, we'll do the song again for you.

The yellow flag song is okay for music until a traditional percussion & instrument replace the audio music. We do not want dum dee dee dum forward progress into their territory now do

5-29-2026 Friday Punch-List of Ed Sparks

169B. 5/29/26 In Salinas/Chipipe Why do we have 100s and 1000s of unmarked buses that claim to be resort/hotel buses military buses but I've never/rarely see anyone expensive on beach umbrellas?

 Is this because we trade housing for labor? Do we own the military base? **

170. Does the Punta Pacifica buildings have a foundation if the middle building that they built over the center was not removed 100 years plus?

 Is there any land claim either? <insert Dardashti Capital 4 foot parking lot wall removal by City of Van Nuys instance> Just plow please. **

171. Since our 96 story high antenna located in the center of our peninsula has a ground lease, Aren't legalities with cows & horses a good reason to play & sod to maintain these acreage (hectare) formalities?

 Birdees said trailers are easier. **

172. Does all our Trash Man Phone Number(s) worldwide look like they have a TM raised after or before the first last number? Is the M backwards?

 Do they look like social security numbers to you? 800-123-1248, 800-12-31248, 800-12-3124TM??

173. 5/29/26 8PM black short photo girl mine dog girl assessment same group. Great at sitting?

174. Remember to comment on girls from pageant's social media somewhere as a trade of currency as I did watch them at their best.

we?... without our yellow flag song.

Ground small fireworks seem entertaining at night, but the “boys in blue” are clean with no trash. Shells fireworks seem difficult to location off the road in the dark.

Princesses travel for their own entertainment.

The nap and awake for leisure at all times disinterested in the inconvenience.

We may do odd things like wonder at stars, read scrolls for entertainment, and see habits of people providing informations about themselves during a 24hr period. We may enjoy a browse of day scenery or leave chariot for chariot sickness/chariot fever.

A special thought of princess workspace and craft room.

We do like decorations. Maybe in an international world, the geniuses abroad have made a twin twin of a Mercedes Sprinter laundry van with a high roof & wash area. A bus with uniform mechanics & tooling & extra parts will do nicely.

Myself princess has much seen many countries. Seeing other ones can make improvements on business decisions large, small, and mega-corps in the landscape painted by troubleshooting.

--

The princess is okay with supply chain sentry simultaneously experiencing the ground on routes from Syria to Khartoum as an example of the word missionary.

The princesses are of no objective value. Please leave their bodies and maintain orders. We are at rest already.

Princesses do enjoy happiness & sadness traditionale. We did request 32x 32x 32x E&O+T and applaud the creativity of meeting in the middle of behind each line – occasionally, of course.

The yellow flag song & the trail song is a pleasure & a punishment.

With much love in words, we do not require smelling the smelly.. A different inconvenience when people go home is expected.

Please and Thank You, return with a shower.

Princess Sparks & Wife(s).

PS. An anthem may be considered a treat while away from your home. We live in a 24hr world, honey. A little fireworks is okay.

See, the princess is frivolous & not interesting.

But, we are good at sitting, clapping, & napping.

BK was pan de sal huevos scramble & tocino. I started typing about 8:15am but I did try to accidentally turn my computer on around 7:15 due to habit.

I wrote an email to Lecce to my disgust was still here at 8:56pm. My prior service record should dictate otherwise. I had to work and type at the same time. It seemed okay. I knew I had only had about 4 hours to 30 and maybe I was 4 hours to 32.

Lunch was steak mash and salad lime mixto which we call lemon in Ecuador. They're about 50 for $1.

After that I made another photo for Facebook. I had earlier posted my hint for the school final project. People showed up at the police department Svetlana call meed and someone else picked up yesterday and in from of the police. Moogles was fined. The same situation is with my email.

Mike texted me but had no response. He was in Vero and far away stay-cationing. I turned 'er off at 1:30pm to listen to my 3 songs

Went to beach with Lisseth. The water was freezing. She was interested due to my no shower relations.

We walked and saw an egret with yellow or green feet. I threw a starfish back but was sad about the ants. We saw a beauty pageant bus that replaced the party bus. It parks next to my house.

I put my chair there (next to bus parking) to wait (for the parking whatever was going to happen) and Lisseth (left) made dinner.

The beauty princesses were countrywide. They were all princesses advanced. I stayed because I was proud of them. They worked hard best version of themselves. I waved at some stayed in my chair until they walked the artesanal market for videos and photos. Once back on the bus, I got up and stood with the normal staff to wave and then back to wave at the other side.

Ate 3 giant burritos for dinner with cream agria what to this day is cream cheese. Then we were out of salsa chips. The Tuti far Lisseth does not like the Tuti for snacks because our apartment is still for rent on our favorite street.

We saw a night round fire of beauty queens. The fire was burning in the center and roasting about 5 of them in light wind. I was impressed at no shoes sandy toes on some of them.

3:36AM Overnight writing.

I stood with my wife eating an ice cream cone watching the circle of beauty queens hold a microphone and talking. This was for posterity and female glory. I waited for Esmeraldas, the city next to the village where my wife is from.

I have notified governments that the wife of Ed Sparks has no actual ethnicity as she is indigenous Pocahontas. TV has shown her negras in America are of the same color as she is.

(I have said that my wife is not black. She is not a black person. There are 0 people in America, I've said maybe 5, that if she landed in any country in the world, she would have 0 maybe 5 people in the entire country with her ethnicity. Probably regional group of countries if not 0.

There is no correlation between a black person anywhere and my wife who knows absolutely nothing about the cultures of anything even in our local not-in-her-city 99.9% of any part of the country of Ecuador. In fact, she would know more about the countries that we've traveled to, moreso than what words mean.

This is why I have zero 0 problems with her Bible reading, because there are NO CORRELATIONS between anything she's read forming words or sentences both mentally or verbally or in deep thought. Super-mo-dela. Not Einstein-Barb-bie-rella. Zero.

Even so... my Father told me to my face a few years prior... Do you know why I married your mother? This was a good question that I did not know the answer to. I said, No. He said, "Because she could read". That made sense to me.)

vessel headed for the Philippines who dropped off Africans when seeing a topless tribe on the equator.

Although Equatorial Guinea on the other side seemed similar, our side has no declarable ethnicity for such a region of 2 possible ~1/2 counties that are Merlin chocolate caramelo in a random part of the Amazon's beach.

She's Vatican classified as an Angel of Death, Banco Pichincha account holder, and 36+ months covered by USA laws by marriage. We finally left the circle (of bonfire beauty queens).

I had tripped over a cobblestone beach brick that Merlin had birthed from the Malecon sidewalk on the way to the Tuti. I did not want to fix it immediately as getting dirty now...

... only could add math power to the brick. 1/1600 locals in Salinas/Chipipe sat on the bench with dog to witness said event. She judged me for not being a man as she's a woman helpless.

I took Merlin's Brick and dove in bare hands to get sand out and re-align the lego. She (Liseth) was furious to stand next to me for such an event. I said nothing but Mi Esposa no es Aqui. Es solo meeyo and tuyo.

I went home. Cleaned up some some Burrito Belly slept until 3:36AM. I also keep writing the month as 2.
