BK burritos Lisseth was sick & refused the victim of eggs with the burrito.

I woke up 4:15am. Sent email to Syria, Jordon, Egypt, Sudan, South Sudan, about princess policy & woke up VS Lecce night/weekend shift. They were doing anti-princess & female princess for assistants to the actual princess. Bravo.

I took bus to Chipipe. I was nobody except recruit jog in formation. I walked did my 20 grease lightnings/leg swings/bench pushups. People are starting to enjoy such tings. I did not begin the craze.

I am not suppose to computer on Saturdays but I did some math to discover that I need to work on Sunday which turned out to be Saturday. I turned 'er on and put up my Anti-Fraternization Law photos, thoughts, and Sunday synopsis.

I worked. I was in a brief communication which lasted to Lunch. The people whose salary are much more apt to not-salary on weekends, somebody decided to (psycho-math) com on their own today. We learned lessons.

Lunch was encebellido as Lisseth was poking/feeling rougher than usual. I was in turmoil until 2PM when she said we would leave for La Libertad.

Maintenance has been ignoring the nose ear eyebrow department. We got a rechargeable at the chino. I did buy a multi-color pencil with astronauts floating. One was playing the guitar.

The pen had a mini-notebook. I was EXCITED about the BONUS. The notebook was on a little metal loop. I DID GNOME that I LIKED the small tiny NOTEBOOK (later) until Lisseth touched the notebook. When SHE decided to TOUCH the notebook tiny, I was GETTING a little INVADED.

I did see one homeless guy use his road vest as a slapping device on another zombie enjoying music. After the 2nd of 20 or 40, I did not enjoy the scene. Some of the personalities as well as Trash Man were watching.

Me and TM said that's what they do to me. TM said that he didn't trust the CPs that I know well. I was there at his confrontation & did see them peruse his house involuntarily. So we talked about that.

After a few moments, I did say that I did not exemplify myself on that behavior and other people's personalities were behind the input (of the CPs). Right now I fell like a stoic, but they may have seen me on certain days.

So we chatted about trust. He don't trust them. And I said, being friends is good. Who cares? Having multiple friends shows the differences to you.

A few people were chiming. The me and TM saw the homeless jacket situation and agreed torture but briefly....

... entertaining. Butt, this situation has happened to both of us & deducted later maybe everyone. Lisseth was pissed that I can't user my com without talking with my lips in public. Cuz I'm not on the phone. And I do laugh a ton.

I do hang up on everyone that says “my country”, “countrymen”, “their country”, “your country”, variations.

This is an IT satire loop of consciousness in the form of antennas. I do not need them either. We do Highwind with “My lips move but I say nothing” for years and years.

A big voice started an embassy communication. She attacked all sorts of things. The end result was, if your job today was to read a piece of paper to me in 6 minutes, then you are so used to a position where you can't be fired, instead of following directions. Now she's translating ALL my (virtual) stuffs (as a punishment/pleasure).

Good for her. She's learning for a very very very long time. Imagine how much translating there is to do from me to you.

Went to beach at 17:02. Saturday is busier butt the water was freezing. Not too much butt a minutes adult dog being forced to swim with a life jacket & a wiener dog.

I understood early in the day that my birthday happened in student areas. I put up some songs that I like his year, explained the definition of meow meow, orange, and Pinky the Meow Meow video for the BuBus, BooBoos, Bu Babies, and Kid Casanova.

Dinner was Papi Pollo. I helped out the French Fries. Her version is soggy please. I ate them. She did ask me if I liked the chicken. I did say that the piece I had tasted like amor.

<(I always get weirded out when she eats ¼ plate daily and then spies on my plate and asks if I like the food. I know she doesn't like the final product. I always wonder if she is serving me the fall-on-floor food or she's eating the fall-on-floor food... today.)>

Then fell asleep until 3AM. I did see the horses for the police roll in our 1600 person retirement community. I believe the KFC serves more people each today then live in our city. People drive an hour to get there (zombies too).

<Horse police are photo entertainment here. This is not Ybor City where they close at a certain time. I ask all the time, do we have an objective or did the city spend our cash on NOT KEEPING unemployed (uninsured motorists, posterity non-correction), drunk drivers, motorcycle clubs, sex traffickers, unmarked buses, trash pickers, and more....>

I just want to say that I see my shadow in the hall and know the beast is cumming. Happy birthday, 44. (past midnight)
