6-2-2026 Tuesday Notes of Ed Sparks

I woke up around 5:30. The day was overcast for mid/early winter. I took the bus after coffee and met my day by getting kids off the bus with a cuidado.

I did not have cigarettes in my pocket. Chipipe was empty and Salinas was next.

The question was asked... Is the United States evil?... while I write.

The question is an anthro-poligical conundrum.

The answer is an anthro-poligical conundrum.

I'm Orange. I had & have & will have no need for such things.

Traveling fixes such a conundrum on a bell curve. The word motivation is used when a destination is set on a (bar set the bar, high jumping) national message.

The same question was about Russia and the premise was based on Is the USA dangerous? ...which I answered are you asking me a question based on the business statistics (this is meant as the business of arrests and courts).

Being our business spending is military 1st. Russia could produce no such uniform propaganda due to size and multiple mixing of cultures. (This would state a uniform message of any kind could not be produced with uncontrollable borders over years of mixing with neighboring countries.)

(Baltics, Outside Israel, Africa, Afghanistan) Ottoman was raised as I don't like this word. Ottoman includes a region of which Arabic includes many regions. I am excluding in my statements.

6-2-2026 Tuesday Punch-List of Ed Sparks

177. 6/2/26 (CP badgering persistence is resistance is my definition and with their persistence I stopped resistance.) Friend of group that helped some kids black thong bikini. Mine.

I did my grease lightnings/leg swings/bench pushups 23. Jerome was on the beach with small dog. I know Mayra looks at Jerome swimming early with the big dog. If he looks happy, she'll put an end to that.

I discussed my latina wife strategy. She's got a dumber & anti-smarter strategy with you and you got to use the smarter & anti-dumber strategy with her. Just wait until she's in the middle of the road and say "you're wrong (Mayra)" or "(Mayra) apologize to me". Maybe free time you'll have if she's in a an ambulance.

I finished my walk and ran inside because it was cold. I can't wait too long but BK was 2 eggs hard boiled queso pan de sal. I cleaned and tidied up.

Work was on my mind. I emailed at 8:10am a princess request or official request. We call it ASS or Brass. I either "Princess with a Purpose" or "Princess of Power".

"The the Princess, that he... is not permitted to do anything... that he... wants. The princess needs... orders to get. on.... the base."

He was also concerned with after princess destination & well being.

I made some graphics for Malibu Match. Sent a text to Bridgett who has a job now. I called her back because she wanted to be a matchmaker. She could've been paid to annoy me.

Lunch was pescado frito rice & lentils. Lisseth went to Libertad and did buy me a carton of cigs but no cheese. Because lunch was late, I worked 5 hours trying to type my notes as fast as I could but ended 8:10am-13:10pm straight.

Ate. Nap. Beach Nap 3pm. Saw a thong. Too cold. Come back. I did argue about thong girl tatoos are complicated in Latino Land.

5:15pm we went to pick up laundry. They dropped it off at 8pm.

She went to the store for other ingredients. Sat on balcony. Brought Lisseth paper towel to Netflix and dinner. I can hear some crickets now; I saw a flying bug 2x. Normally, our sliding glass door is open. Maybe I'll shut it (door).
