Liseth started mopping the floor about 4:15pm. I was ready for the beach. Went down with both chairs. Water was super high tide had to go down a ways.

I jumped into freeze like a Popsicle. Made a towel sandwich. Gave up after a walk and walk back. Liseth was there next to bikini drinking. Sat higher on stone for about 10 minutes of sunset. Really cold got to go.

Ate same for dinner made her walk for more ingredients salsa. She won't give me money so she does everything. Decided to saute the salsa today. See what's up with that.
